Mom: Have you ever felt that you've wanted to run away from Mom?

Child: Yes, I have.

Mom: Oh, when did you feel like that?

Child: When you got mad at me.

Mom: Oh dear, maybe I did, but that's one of the things that comes with loving you.

Any other case? When did you want to run away and from whom?

And what did you do?

2. Picture Walking

[Cover page]

Mom: I see two rabbits on the wavy grass. One is big, and the other is little.

Child: They might be a mom and baby.

Mom: Right. They are mother bunny and baby bunny.

What do you think they are doing?

Child: I think they are talking to each other.

Mom: About what?

Child: I don't know.

Mom: Let's read the book title. The title is "The Runaway Bunny".

I think the title gives you a clue.

Child: Ah, I guess they are talking about running away.

Mom: Let's find out in the story.

[page 11] 아기토끼를 엄마토끼가 쫓아가고 있다.

Mom: What happened to the little bunny?

He is in the water with some other fish.

Child: He seems to swim like a fish.

Mom: Why? How is that possible? Can bunnies swim?

Child: No. But he is just trying to run away.

Mom: Anyway, where is mommy rabbit?

Child: She is in the house.

Mom: What can you see on the wall?

Child: I see a fishing rod, a net, a basket and a pair of boots.

Mom: Who do you think needs those?

Child: Usually, a fisherman needs those to catch fish.

Mom: Does mommy rabbit need those too?

Child: Yes, she needs to go fishing for her baby.

Mom: Let's check it out. Turn the page.

[page 14~15] 엄마토끼가 아기토끼를 낚고 있다.

She has bait - a carrot.

Child: Yes, look! He is swimming towards the carrot.

[page 16~17] 왼쪽, 아기토끼가 산을 오르고 있다./ 오른쪽, 엄마토끼가 산에 오를 준비를 하고 떠난다.

Mom: On this page I see that the little rabbit is climbing a rocky mountain. What will he become this time?

Child: A rock? I can see only rocks there.

Mom: The mommy rabbit is dressing up like a mountain climber. Why?

Child: She wants to climb up the mountain to find her baby.

Mom: Let's see whether it is right or not.

[page 18~19] 엄마토끼가 산을 오르고 있다.

Mom: Oh, you are right! Mom is climbing up the mountain.

And I can see the rabbit-shaped rock.

Do you want to become a rock to run away like the little bunny?

Child: No.

Mom: Do you think the little rabbit will try to run away again? What could it be next?

Child: Yes, he will be a bird. Let's turn the page.

[page 20~21] 아기토끼가 꽃 옆에 있고 엄마토끼가 꽃에 물을 주려고 하고 있다.

Mom: I see the bunny standing by a flower.

It means he wants to be a flower.

Child: I think so.

Mom: Mom is holding a watering can. What does that mean?

Child: I think she is going to be a gardener.

Mom: Let's find out if you are right.

[page 22~23] 엄마 토끼가 정원을 가꾸러 왔다.

Mom: Oh, you're right! Very good job!

Looking carefully at the pictures makes you guess right.

Where is little bunny? Would you like to point to him?

Child: Yes, here he is.

Mom: Let's go to the next page. Do you think he still wants to run away?

Child: Yes, he does.

[page 24~25] 아기토끼는 새가 되었고 엄마토끼는 나무 있는 쪽으로 가고 있다.

Mom: Look at the little bunny now!

Oh, he has wings like a bird.

Child: Right, that's because he wants to fly away from his mom.

Mom: Mommy is hopping to the tree.

I'm wondering what she could become.

Child: A nest?

Mom: Good idea. Let's check it out.

Mom: Wow, she became a tree! She looks like she is waiting for the baby to come and sit on her branches.
